Chapter 1 by Cool

I stared up at the hospital's dirty white ceiling "who knows what's up there" I thought. My eyes fluttered along with my ever so slight heart beat and my eyes struggled to see. The doctors rushed in with their equipment, I know I will die and will never see my family again. But that's what happens when your life flashes by. I am a nature freak, I am a miracle from god. The many times I have almost died have left my body with medallions, some visible and some not, sometimes I wonder if I should just die but no.

First Flashback: I am a one-year-old, I stand up for my 1st time in front of my mother and she smiles, I toddle towards her outreaching hands but fall back onto my delicate baby head. I am crying as she reaches to put pressure on my head and call the ambulance, I almost died later that day but I was saved by a doctor named loo-loo, she did all she could to keep me alive when no one was looking
